Back in 2014, rising MMA stars Conor McGregor and Dustin Poirier met in Las Vegas, both hoping to become world champions. McGregor won with a first-round TKO and would go on to earn world titles in two weight classes, becoming famous for his antics in and out of the octagon.

Poirier, meanwhile, clocked up notable victories against Max Holloway, Eddie Alvarez and Justin Gaethje, is number two in the UFC lightweight rankings and a huge fan favourite. More recently, he's been busy donating meals to local hospitals in his native Louisiana.

Seven years later and it's time for a blockbuster bout at the newly-completed Etihad Arena – the Middle East's biggest sports venue. Precision striker McGregor is the bookmaker's favourite – but Poirier is no pushover. Whoever clinches victory will get a shot at the lightweight title, according to UFC founder Dana White.

Either way, UFC 257 is set to be an all-action affair from the prelims to the main card. Here's how to find a McGregor vs Poirier 2 live stream and watch UFC 257 from anywhere in the world.

BT Sport has the rights to show UFC 257 in the UK. Subscribers can watch the prelims from 5pm for free. But to watch the main card – including a McGregor vs Poirier 2 live stream – you'll need to tune to BT Sport Box Office and pay-per-view. It costs £19.95 for full access through your BT TV box.

Going to be outside the UK this weekend? You can watch from anywhere using ExpressVPN. Here's how it works...

UFC 257 live stream anywhere in the world using a VPN

Even if you have subscribed to the relevant UFC 257 rights holders, you won't be able to access them when outside your own country. The service will know your location based on your IP address, and will automatically block your access.

A Virtual Private Network (VPN) helps you get around this obstacle. VPNs are a doddle to use and create a private connection between your device and the internet. All the information passing back and forth is entirely encrypted.

We recommend paid-for VPN services, such as ExpressVPN or NordVPN, because they are entirely safe, come with 24/7 customer support and can be used to watch sport and other entertainment from any part of the world on almost any device. Try it out with the link below and get three months free.
